THE CUT MET.

The Burlington Takes a Hand in the Rate War.

The Burlington has met the cut of the Union Pacific on rates to the west, and has put in a rate of $15, second class, from Kansas City to Ogden. The Union Pacific, says the Kansas City Star, has been quietly ignoring the roads of the Transmissary association and selling tickets to Ogden, Portland and the northwest at the reduced rate. The Western Passenger association refused to base through western rates on the Union Pacific's reduction, and the competing lines being unable to stand the strain longer were obliged to come to the Burlington. The Burlington served notice of its cut in the rate to the west, and the Missouri Pacific and the Santa Fe.
All these lines will meet the cut immediately.

Prior to the action of the U. ion Pacific there was no second class rate between here and Ogden. The rate now will be $18 for second class tickets and $25 for first-class tickets. The rate to Denver is $10.75, and from there to Ogden $20, so that there will be afforded a slight change in the rate. The Western Passenger association will now be compelled to base through western rates on the reduced rate agreed to today by the Burlington, being a decided backdown from the position it took regarding the Union Pacific a week ago.

A New System.

THE HERALD is in receipt of a letter from B. G. Gutzwiller, of St. Petersburg, Russia, explaining his system for making railway passenger cars adaptable as sleeping cars, without diminishing the number of places.

Excursionists spend a Pleasant Day in Salt Lake.

The Pullman car San Juan arrived here at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, having on board a distinguished party from Los Angeles en route to the fair. The visitors numbered twenty-one, and among them were five members of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, in charge of Dr.
J. R. Haynes, S. P. Mulford and A. E.
Pomeroy, and were met at the depot by President Hubbard of the Salt Lake chamber of commerce, Superintendent Welby of the Western U. G. Whittemore and L. P.
Kelsey. The visitors were taken to the Knutsford for breakfast, after which they were driven over the city by a couple of hours in the Raymond coach, returning to the Knutsford for lunch. In the afternoon they visited the tabernacle, and were then whisked out to Salt Lake under the guidance of S. W.
Bears, who has several friends in the party, Messrs. Bowdye, Hamberger, J. H.
Bennett and others. After a city in the brine the party returned to town, well pleased with the outing.

To a Herald representative Dr. Haynes said that the excursion was nothing to compare with the Los Angeles chamber of commerce. The excursion representing that organization will visit Salt Lake on the way home from the fair. The doctor expressed himself as highly pleased with Salt Lake city.

Railway Notes.

The choir will meet Governor West and his staff on their arrival at Chicago.

Commencing today the Union Pacific will take cars at 5:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. trains for Garfield.

The interesting question as to whether Western Passenger association lines have the right, under the agreement, to accept, without association action, the basing rates tendered by connections, will come up for discussion at a special meeting September 6.

There seems to be an impression that those who leave for Chicago after this morning cannot reach the White City in time for Utah day. This is a mistake.
Persons leaving on Thursday morning over the Union Pacific will reach Chicago on Saturday morning in time for the celebration.

The Central Traffic association and the Brotherhood of St. Andrews are in trouble over the concessions for the annual meeting of the brotherhood which takes place this year at Detroit. The brotherhood claims the association agreed to allow stopover privileges on the reduced tickets at Chicago, but this the association emphatically denies.

Made Miserable for Life.

This you may easily be if you fail to remedy the indigestion and non-assimilation of the food, which are the attendants and originators of nervousness, that ever present ailment which no anodyne, mineral, sedative or purgative can ever do more than temporarily relieve. Of course these remedies have no effect upon the organs of digestion and assimilation, except to disorder and enfeeble them, thus aggravating the original difficulty.
Among the most alarming and dangerous symptoms of chronic nervousness are inomnia, which is the professional term for inability to sleep. Where this exists there is always a tendency to mental overthrow, nervous and eventual insanity.

Begin at the fountain head of all this difficulty with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and avert all consequences. No sooner does the stomach resume its tone and the system gain in vigor through the aid of this benign tonic, than sleep returns and the nervous grow tranquil.
Chills and fever, rheumatism, biliousness and constipation yield to the Bitters.

A DESERVED TRIBUTE.

Death of a Well Known and Respected Citizen and Writer.

THE HERALD cheerfully gives place to the following brief tribute to the worth of an old and esteemed journalist, printer, pioneer and gentleman, whose kindly disposition and varied abilities won for him the respect and affection of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

Many of your readers were greatly pained on reading the brief announcement in your Sunday issue recording the death of L. O. Littlefield. His sickness had been brief and while he was quite aged, being close to 80 years old, his death will be keenly felt by all who knew him.
Lyman O. Littlefield was a native of New York state and passed through innumerable vicissitudes incident to the building up of the western states. He joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints when a boy and was a member of the famous body of men known as Zion's Camp, participating in its memorable march. He was at Independence, Nauvoo, and other places settled by his co-religionists, and came to Utah at an early day. He labored successfully on the Oregon City Oracle, Council Bluffs Dispatch, Des Moines Register, and other papers, and was a contributor to the Independent and Logan Journal, and never failed to make many friends by his kindly manner and steadfast devotion to upright principles. He leaves many writings to perpetuate his memory, among which is his celebrated correspondence with Joseph Smith, president of the Reorganized church.

A full history of his life, with its many triumphs and tribulations, would read like a romance. His wife, a daughter of the late Joseph Young, and an only daughter, Mrs. Charles C. Graham, of Marysville, Mo., survive him.

Hoping you will pardon the intrusion of this brief tribute to his memory from one who knew him long and well. Respectfully,
E. T. HYDE.

UTAH AS A STATE.

During the last few years of its terrificial history Utah has made magnificent progress in every material province, and is now fully equipped for her entry into the great world of states. That this will be accomplished there is no reasonable doubt. As a commemorative of this probable event, and to still further aid in our progress and development, the HERALD will compile and publish a Souvenir History of Salt Lake City, setting forth the manly struggles of our people in the past, and the splendid results achieved thereby in the plentiful fruition of the present. The book will be the handsomest, as to typography and illustrations, that has ever been issued in Utah, and will be a most valuable addition to the literature of the state. It will be a
